

NATIONAL MARITIME EDUCATION COUNCIL

THE NEW STANDARD

FOR MARITIME CRAFT PROFESSIONALS

Our mission is to lead the Maritime industry in the development, promotion, and implementation of standardized craft training processes.

WHO WE ARE

NMEC is a multi-regional, industry-centered, national organization working to address workforce issues facing the maritime industry:

- Aging workforce
- Lack of technically skilled workers
- Lack of defined, standardized skill-sets, curricula, and credentials for production crafts
- Cost of recruiting, hiring, testing, and training workers
- High turnover rates

THE SOLUTION-STANDARDIZED TRAINING

Leverage the experience and success of the NCCER model used in other industries to deliver

- Modularized, industry-driven, task-based curricula
- Portable skills credentials
- A proven system to accredit instructors/facilities
- A proven system to certify individuals through validated knowledge and skills assessments
- A national registry to provide individuals/employers with training transcripts/assessment results

THE RETURN ON INVESTMENT

The NCCER workforce development process results in

- Lower hiring and recruitment costs
- Increased productivity
- Lower absenteeism rates
- Fewer lost-time accidents
- Reduced rework and defects
- Increased morale
- The ability to remediate at task level

WHY CHOOSE US?

To provide value and return on investment to our members, NMEC will

Provide a centralized, "national voice" for maritime workforce development.

Serve as a conduit between member companies and NCCER's workforce development system.

Assist members in accessing available NCCER resources and connecting to the elements of the NCCER system that best support their WFD plans.

Provide credentialing and certification services to member companies as an Accredited Training Sponsor (ATS) and Accredited Assessment Center (AAC).

Provide members with information and assistance on compliance with national and state apprenticeship programs and applicable DOL regulations.

Gather and distribute global best practices and industry data as they relate to maritime workforce development.

Work closely and collaboratively with national and local organizations which support the maritime industry.
